

Intriguing Development Announces Release Date for iRemember
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Blue Springs, MO, June 21, 2005 – Intriguing Development announced today that it will start shipping its new Mac-only scrapbooking product, iRemember, on June 27.

Creating personalized scrapbooks is easy and enjoyable with iRemember. All the tools you need to create stunning scrapbooks are included. Create borders, backgrounds, and frames. Drag your photos from iPhoto and crop them to a variety of shapes and sizes. Embellish your pages with text and clip art.

iRemember includes clip art, templates, borders, backgrounds, and a clip art browser – everything you need to get started!

"Our beta testing program really showed us that scrapbooking on the Mac was in need of a tailored, easy-to-use solution", Doug Troxell, President of Intriguing Development said. "iRemember will bring scrapbookers, Mac OS X, and the Digital Hub together for the first time."

Priced at $49.95, iRemember will be available for purchase through Intriguing Developments online store, <http://www.macscrapbook.com>
